Prints that are part of an edition produced using traditional print making techniques are accepted but must be numbered accordingly. Any image made using digital or digital print processes must be labelled accordingly.

A limit of two (2) entries per artist. This includes small pieces; e.g. jewellery. Each piece entered in the exhibition must be available for sale. A multiple piece work must be sold as one and cannot be sold as individual items.

Entry forms must be received by 5pm 24th February 2012. Postal entries postmarked after 24/2/2012 will not be accepted.

An entry fee of $20.00 per artwork ($10 if HAEG Member) must be included on return of entry form. Cheques to be made payable to HAEG Inc. Please note: Entry fees are non-refundable. Receipts will be available when work is delivered.

A discount of $5.00 per artist will be given to those exhibitors who contribute to the roster during the exhibition.

All artwork is to be delivered at the artist's expense and registered (without packaging) at the Cygnet Town Hall on Tuesday 28th February between the hours of 10am and 6pm ONLY. No late deliveries.

Entries may be delivered by post or courier. However all the works submitted in this manner must include return packaging, delivery fee, completed delivery labels and details of courier.

2D work must be suitably framed ready for hanging with picture hanging wire and screw eyes. Unsatisfactory framing may result in the artwork not being hung. 3D works should, wherever possible, be suitably displayed by the artist. Space permitting, all entries will be exhibited. This will be at the discretion of HAEG.

All works must be clearly labelled on the bottom right hand side of the back, or the underside of the artwork with the artist's name, contact details and title of the artwork. Entries with special display requirements should be discussed with HAEG before the exhibition. HAEG may choose not to accept the piece. All pieces must be dry and stable or will not be accepted.

Entrants must agree to display their work for the duration of the exhibition. Entrants must agree to publication or reproduction of their work for promotions.

HAEG and their associates will exercise all reasonable care in handling the works submitted but will not be responsible for loss of and or damage whatsoever to any works while in the custody of the Group. Artists are advised to insure their work.

The judges are independent of HAEG and their decision will not be influenced by the organisation. The judges' decision will be final. No correspondence will be entered into.

Open competition. Members and organisers of HAEG are also eligible to enter the competition.

All work must be available for legitimate sale and priced accordingly. A 20% commission will be charged on sales.

Artists are responsible for making their own arrangements for GST. Irrespective of selling price, an artist winning a particular prize will only be awarded the amount of prize money or voucher stated.

Entries will be accepted based on the artist's acceptance that their entry could be acquired by a sponsor eg. winning the $1000 Mayor's prize.

The Awards will be announced at the Official Opening on Friday 2nd March 2012. The People's Choice prize will be announced at a later date.

Artwork can be collected from the exhibition at the Cygnet Town Hall between the hours of 4.00pm - 6.00pm ONLY on Sunday 18th March or on Monday 19th March between 10.00am - 4.00pm ONLY.

After 2 weeks, uncollected work will become the property of HAEG and may be disposed of at the discretion of the incorporation. If sold the proceeds (less 40%) will be forwarded to the artist. Unsold entries which have been posted or couriered will be returned in the same manner if return packaging and delivery costs have been provided.

If you are dissatisfied with any aspect of the exhibition please write to HAEG (PO Box 353, Cygnet Tasmania 7112) or contact us by email: info@haeg.org.au. The organisation will respond to your complaint. The volunteers who are supervising the exhibition are not in a position to address your concerns.
